Jarvis Securities plc (“Jarvis” or “the Company”)

Trading Update and 2nd Interim Dividend Declaration for 2010

Jarvis is pleased to report that the significant growth in its retail broking business has continued in the first quarter of 2010.

- Trade volumes for Q1 2010 are 71% higher than Q1 2009
- Active client numbers are 44% up on 31 March 2009
- Client cash balances are 77% higher than the end of Q1 2009
- Total assets under administration are 225% of the 31 March 2009 level
- ISA subscriptions for 2009/2010 were more than double any prior tax year

Andrew Grant, Chairman and Chief Executive, commented:

“Our client acquisition rates and trade volumes are up considerably on 2009, which itself was a record year. The business is growing very quickly and we have also managed to improve our service levels and product offerings over this period.

We have also noted a significant improvement in deposit rates for cash since the start of the year and as older deposits mature we will see strong growth in our interest income from the current depressed levels.”

Further, the Directors have declared a second interim dividend of 2 pence per ordinary share, payable on 11 June 2010. The record date shall be 14 May 2010.
